

FIRST NATIONS BUSINESS BUILDER SERIES SEPTEMBER 20TH & 21ST, 2016 - DEERFOOT INN & CASINO

CALL FOR KEYNOTE SPEAKER

Event Concept / Mission:

The 2016 First Nations Business Builder Series will provide insightful information to help promote entrepreneurial success for First Nations people.

The 2016 FNBS will provide a platform for business owners, service providers, and First Nations people to come together to share their perspectives, needs, concerns, expectations, strategies, and effective practices in entrepreneurship.

There will be a keynote speaker, breakout sessions, lunch provided, tradeshow with information and networking booths, and an evening mixer. This symposium will be attended by business owners, community leaders, service providers, students and anyone with a passion to own and operate their own business along with opportunity to network among each other. The goal of this event is set in phases of: Pre-Startup, Start-up and Expansion.

The objectives of the First Nations Business Builder Series are:

1. To share perspectives and practices for First Nations people who own or have a desire to own their own business.
2. To create partnerships and build capacity within the business community.

Participants attending the event will benefit from new contacts, information, and learning. Delegates will be primarily comprised of First Nations entrepreneurs, business community representatives, and professionals working in the field of economic development – these professionals will include managers, business support officers, and lending officers.
